PART V

PROCEDURE

(Rules made under section 92(1) of the Code)

- 30. Introductory. - Save as otherwise provided in these rules, the procedure to be followed by a Competent Authority in the disposal of cases under the Act or these rules and by the parties in such cases shall be regulated in accordance with the rules contained in rule 31 to rule 54.
- 31. Application. - (1) Any application of the nature referred to in section 92 may be sent to the Competent Authority by registered post or may be presented to him or to any of his subordinates authorised by him in this behalf and, if so sent or presented, shall unless the Competent Authority otherwise directs, be made in duplicate in Form XXV or XXVI as the case may be or in other appropriate form, if any and, shall be signed by the applicant.
- (2) There shall be appended to every such application a certificate signed by the applicant, to the effect that the statement of facts contained in the application is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, accurate.
- 32. Production of documents. - (1) When the application for relief is based upon a document, the document shall be appended to the application.
- (2) Any other document which any party desires to tender in evidence shall be produced at or before the first hearing.
- (3) Any document which is not produced at or within the time specified in sub-rule (1) or (2) as the case may be, shall not, without the permission of the Competent Authority, be admissible in evidence on behalf of the party who should have produce it.
- (4) Nothing in this rule applies to any documents which is produced for the purpose of cross-examining a witness or is shown to a witness for refreshing his memory.
- 33. Application presented to wrong Competent Authority. - (1) If it appears to the Competent Authority on receiving an application that should have been presented to another Competent Authority, he shall return it to the applicant after endorsing thereon the dates of presentation and return thereof, the reason for returning it and the designation of the Competent Authority to whom it should be presented.
- (2) If it appears to the Competent Authority at any subsequent stage an application should have been presented to another Competent Authority, he shall send the application to the Competent Authority empowered to deal with it shall in form the applicant (and the opposite party, if any to whom a copy of the application has been sent under rule 37), accordingly.
- (3) The Competent Authority to whom an application is transferred under sub-rule (2) may continue the proceedings as if the previous proceedings or any part of them had been taken before him, if he is satisfied that the interest of the parties will not thereby be prejudiced.

- 34. Examination of applicant.- (1) On receiving an application of the nature referred to in section 93, the Competent Authority may examine the applicant on oath, or may send the application to any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf and direct such officer to examine the applicant and his witness and forward the record thereof to the Competent Authority.
- (2) The substance of any examination made under sub-rule (1) shall be recorded in the manner provided for the recording of evidence in section 97.
- 35. Summary dismissal of application. - (1) The Competent Authority may, after considering the application and the record of the examination, if any, of the applicant under rule 34, summarily dismiss the application, if, for reasons to be recorded, he is of the opinion that there are no sufficient grounds for proceeding thereon.
- (2) The mere dismissal of the application under sub-rule (1) shall not preclude the applicant from presenting a fresh application for the settlement of the same matter.
- 36. Preliminary inquiry into application.- If the application is not dismissed under rule 35 the Competent Authority may, for reasons to be recorded, call upon the applicant to produce evidence in support of the application before calling upon any other party, to defend it and if upon considering such evidence, the Competent Authority is of the opinion that there is no case for the relief claimed, he may dismiss the application with a brief statement of his reasons for so doing.
- 37. Notice to opposite party. - If the Competent Authority does not dismiss the application under rule 36 or rule 37, he shall send to the party from whom the applicant claims relief (hereinafter referred to as 'the opposite party') a copy of the application, together with a notice of the date on which he will dispose of the application, and may call upon the parties to produce on that date any evidence which they may wish to tender.
- 38. Appearance and Examination of opposite party.- (1) The opposite party may, and if so required the Competent Authority, shall at or before the first hearing or with in such time as the Competent Authority may permit, file a written statement dealing with the claim raised in the application, and any such written statement shall form part of the record.
- (2) If the opposite party contests the claim, the Competent Authority may, and if no written statement has been filed, shall proceed to examine him upon the claim, and shall reduce the examination to writing.
- 39. Framing of issues. - (1) After considering any written statement and the record of any examination of the parties, the Competent Authority shall ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues upon which the right decision of the case appears to him to depend.
- (2) In recording the issues, the Competent Authority shall distinguish between those issues which in his opinion relate to questions of fact and those which relate to question of law.
- 40. Power to postpone trial of issues of fact where issues of law arise. - When issues both of law and of fact arise in the same case, and the Competent Authority is of the opinion that the case may be disposed of on the issues of law only, he may try those issues first and for that purpose may, if he thinks fit, postpone the determination of the issues of fact until after the issues of law have been determined.
- 41. Diary. - The Competent Authority shall maintain under his hand a brief diary of the proceedings on an application.
- 42. Reasons for postponement to be recorded. - If the Competent Authority is unable to dispose of an application at one hearing, he shall record the reasons which necessitate a postponement.
- 43. Judgment.- (1) The Competent Authority shall, while passing orders, record concisely a judgment, his finding on each of the issues framed and his reasons for such findings.
- (2) The Competent Authority shall, at the time of signing and dating his judgments, pronounce his decision, and thereafter no addition or alternation shall be made to the judgment other than the correction of a clerical or arithmetical mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.
- 44. Summoning of Witness. - If an application is presented by any party to the proceedings for the citation of witnesses, the Competent Authority shall, on payment of the requisite expenses and fees, issue summons for the appearance of such witnesses, unless he considers that their appearance is not necessary for the just decision of the case.

45. Exemption for a payment of costs.- If the Competent Authority is satisfied that the applicant is unable by reason of poverty, to pay the prescribed fees, he may remit any or all of such fees. If the case is decided in favour of the applicant, the prescribed fees which, had they not been remitted, would have been due to be paid, may be added to the costs of the case and recovered in such manner as the Competent Authority in his order regarding costs directs.

46. Right of entry for local inspection. - A Competent Authority before whom any proceeding relating to an injury by accident is pending may at any time enter the place where the Employee was injured, or where the Employee ordinarily performed his work, for the purpose of making a local inspection or of examining any person likely to be able to give information relevant to the proceedings.

Provided that the Competent Authority shall not enter any Premises of any industrial establishment except during the ordinary working hours of that establishment, save with the permission of the employer or of some person directly responsible to him for the management of the establishment.

47. Procedure for local inspection. - (1) If the Competent Authority proposes to conduct a local inspection with a view to examining on the spot the circumstances in which an accident took place, he shall give the parties or their representative's notice of his intention to do so, unless in his opinion the urgency of the case renders, the giving of such notice impracticable.

(2) Such notice may be given orally or in writing, and in the case of an employer, may be given to any person upon whom notice of a claim can be served under section 82(3), or the representative of any such person.

(3) Any party, or his representative may accompany the Competent Authority at a local inspection.

(4) After making a local inspection, the Competent Authority shall note briefly in a memorandum any facts observed, and shall show the memorandum to any party who desires to see the same and on payment of the requisite fee shall supply any party with a copy thereof.

(5) The memorandum shall form part of the record.

48. Power of summary examination. - (1) The Competent Authority may, during a local inspection or at any other time, save at a formal hearing of a case pending before him, examine summarily any person likely to be able to give information relative to such case, whether such person has been, or is to be called as a witness in the case or not, and whether any or all of the parties are present or not.

(2) No oath shall be administered to a person examined under sub-rule (1).

(3) A statement made by a person examined under sub-rule (1), if reduced to writing shall, not be signed by the person making the statement, nor shall it, except as hereinafter provided, be incorporated in the record or utilized by the Competent Authority for the purpose of arriving at a decision in the case.

(4) If a witness who has been examined under sub-rule (1) makes in his evidence any statement contradicting in material particulars any statement made by him in such examination and reduced to writing, the Competent Authority may call his attention to such statement and shall in that case direct that the parties be furnished with the relevant part of such statement of the purpose of using it in examining or cross-examining the witness.

(5) Any statement or part of a statement which is furnished to the parties under sub-rule (4) shall be incorporated in the record.

(6) Where a case is settled by agreement between the parties, the Competent Authority may incorporate in the record any statement made by a person examined under sub-rule (1) and may utilise such statement for the purpose of justifying his acceptance of, or refusal to accept, the agreement reached.

49. Agreement to abide by Competent Authority's decision. - (1) If a party expresses in writing his willingness to abide by the decision of the Competent Authority, the Competent Authority shall ascertain whether the other party also is willing so to abide.

(2) If the other party is so willing, the fact of his willingness shall be recorded in writing and the record thereof shall be signed by him.

(3) If the other party is not willing to abide by the Competent Authority's decision, the party which had initially expressed his willingness to abide by the decision of the Competent Authority shall not be bound so to abide.

50. Procedure where indemnity claimed under section 85(2).- (1) Where the opposite party claims that if compensation is recovered from him he would be entitled under section 85(2), to be indemnified by a person not being a party to the case, he shall, when first called upon to defend the application, present a notice of such claim to the Competent Authority accompanied by the requisite fees, and the Competent Authority shall thereupon issue a notice to such person in Form XXVII.

- (2) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) desires to contest the applicants claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Competent Authority on the date fixed for the hearing of the case or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears, he shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings. If he does not so appear he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of any award which may be made against the opposite party and to have admitted his own liability to indemnify the opposite party for any compensation which may be recovered from him:

Provided that, if any person so served subsequently and satisfies the Competent Authority that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Competent Authority shall, after giving notice to the applicant and the aforesaid opposite party, hear such person, and may set aside or vary any award made against such person upon such terms as the Competent Authority thinks just.

- (3) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) whether or not he desire to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified claims that being a contractor he is himself a principal and is entitled to be indemnified by a person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the Employee could have recovered compensation he shall on or before the date fixed in the notice under sub-rule (1) present a notice of such claim to the Competent Authority accompanied by the requisite fee and the Competent Authority shall thereupon issue notice to such person in Form XXVIII.

- (4) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (3) desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the claim under sub rule (3) to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Competent Authority on the date fixed in the notice in Form XXVI or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings. If he does not so appear he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of any award which may be made against the original opposite party or the person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) and have admitted his own liability to indemnify the party against whom such award is made for any compensation which may be recovered from him:

Provided that, if any person so served appears subsequently and satisfies the Competent Authority that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Competent Authority, shall, after giving notice to all parties on the record, hear such person, and may set aside or vary any award made against such person upon such terms as the Competent Authority thinks just.

- (5) In any proceedings in which a notice has been served on any person under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (3), the Competent Authority shall, if he awards compensation, record in his judgment a finding in respect of each of such persons, whether he is or is not liable to indemnify any of the opposite parties, and shall specify the party, if any, whom he is liable to indemnify.

51. Procedure in connected cases.- (1) Where two or more cases pending before a Competent Authority arise out of the same accident, and any issue involve is common to two or more such cases, such cases may, so far as the evidence hearing on such issue is concerned, be heard simultaneously.

- (2) Where the procedure specified in sub-rule (1) is followed, the evidence bearing on a common issue shall be recorded in the proceedings of one case, and the Competent Authority shall certify under his hand in the proceedings of any other such case, the extent to which the evidence so recorded applies to such other case, and the fact that the parties to such other case had the opportunity of being present, and, if they were present, of cross examining the witnesses.

(Abstract for the Maternity Benefit, and the rules made under the Social Security Code, 2020).

[See Rule 13]

1. No employer shall knowingly employ a woman during the six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery of miscarriage/ Medical termination of pregnancy and no woman shall work in any establishment during the said period.

2. No pregnant woman shall, on a request being made by her in this behalf, be required by her employer to do during the period of one month immediately preceding the period of six weeks before the date of her expected delivery and also for any period during this period of six weeks for which she does not avail of leave of absence, any work which is of an arduous nature or which involves long hours of standing, or which in way is likely to interfere with her pregnancy or the normal development of the foetus, or is likely to cause her miscarriage or otherwise to adversely affect her health.
3. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Code, every woman who has actually worked in an establishment of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit for a period of not less than eighty days, including the days during which she was laid off, shall be entitled to, and her employer shall be liable for, the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of her average daily wages, or the minimum rate of wage fixed or revised under the Code on wages 2019 or Two hundred rupees a day, whichever is higher, for the period of her actual absence not exceeding six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery and the remaining period immediately following that day:

Provided further that where a woman dies during the period for which maternity benefit is payable, to her, the benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death. However, where the woman having been delivered of a child, dies during her delivery or during the remaining period of maternity benefit leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the, payment of maternity benefit for the entire period of maternity benefit following the day of her delivery but if the child also dies during the said period, then, for the days up to and including the day of the death of the child.

- (2) The amount of maternity benefit for the period preceding the date of her expected delivery shall be paid in advance by the employer to the woman on production of a certificate in Form X (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government) stating that she is pregnant and is expected to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date of production of the certificate, and the amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of production of the certificate issued in Form X (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government) that she has been delivered of a child or production of a certified extract from a Birth Register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.
4. (1) Any woman employed in an establishment and entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Code may give notice in writing in Form XI (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government) to her employer, stating that her maternity benefit and any other amount to which she may be entitled under this Code may be paid to her or to such person as she may nominate in the notice and that she will not work in any establishment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit.
- (2) In the case of a woman who is pregnant, such notice shall state the date from which she will be absent from work, not being a date earlier than six weeks from the date of her expected delivery.
- (3) Any woman who has not given the notice when she was pregnant may give such notice as soon as possible after the delivery.
- (4) On receipt of the notice, the employer shall permit such woman to absent herself from establishment until the expiry of the remaining period of maternity benefit after the day of her delivery.
5. (1) Every woman entitled to maternity benefit under the Code shall also be entitled to receive from her employer a medical bonus of Three Thousand and Five Hundred Rupees, if no pre-natal, confinement and post-natal care is provided for by the employer free of charge. The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second installment of the maternity benefit.
- (2) In case of miscarriage/medical termination of pregnancy, a woman shall, on production of a certificate in Form X (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government) be entitled to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit, for a period of six weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The wages shall be paid within 48 hours of production of the certificate in Form X (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government).

- (3) A woman suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation shall, on production of a certificate in Form X (appended to the Code on Social Security Central Rules, 2020 made by the Central Government) be entitled, in addition to the period of absence allowed to her on account of maternity or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation, as the case may be, to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit for a maximum period of one month. The wages for the leave period shall be paid within 48 hours of the expiry of that period.
6. Every woman delivered of a child who returns to duty after such delivery shall, in addition to the interval for rest allowed to her, be allowed in the course of her daily work two breaks of 15 minutes' duration for nursing the child until the child attains the age of fifteen months. An extra sufficient period, depending upon the distance to be covered, shall be allowed for the purpose of the journey to and from the creche or the place where the children are left by women while on duty, provided that such extra period shall not be less than 5 minutes and more than 15 minutes' duration.
7. (1) When a woman absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of the Code, it shall be unlawful for her employer to discharge or dismiss her during or on account of such absence or to give notice of discharge or dismissal on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence, or to vary to her disadvantage any of the conditions of her service.
- (2) (a) The discharge or dismissal of a woman at any time during her pregnancy, if the woman but for which discharge or dismissal would have been entitled to maternity benefit or medical bonus shall not have the effect of depriving her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus:
- Provided that where the dismissal is for one or more of the following acts, the employer may, by order in writing communicate to the woman, deprive her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus or both-
